

Martin Stančík Counsel

Martin Stančík specialises in banking, finance, and capital markets.

In the area of banking, finance and capital markets, Martin focuses primarily on the regulatory aspects of the provision of financial services, including licensing procedures before the Czech National Bank, FinTech, and the legal regulation of cryptocurrencies.

He also has experience in debt financing, participating in legal due diligence, and drafting and revising business contracts.

Prior to joining our law firm as an associate in 2018, Martin worked at the Prague office of the international law firm Squire Patton Boggs where he gained experience in debt financing, insolvency, and contract law. He also previously worked at the Prague office of the international law firm CMS Cameron McKenna.

Projects

- legal advice to Czech companies and branches of foreign companies in connection with the grant of licences for operating as non-bank consumer loan providers
- legal advice to a foreign bank in connection with modifications to the banking services provided in the Czech Republic
- legal advice to a foreign insurance company in connection with modifications to the insurance services provided in the Czech Republic
- legal advice to a Czech bank on export financing of aircraft and aeronautic equipment supplied to Mauritius
- legal advice to a Czech bank on obtaining financing for development and operation of shopping malls in Russia
- legal advice to a Czech bank on insolvency proceedings relating to the construction of a power plant in Turkey
- legal advice to the buyer on the acquisition of a manufacturing complex in the Czech Republic
- legal advice to the seller on the sale of a shopping mall in the Czech Republic
- Involvement in a legal due diligence of a Czech manufacturing company
- legal advice to Czech companies and branches of foreign companies in the Czech Republic on labour-law matters, including disputes with employees

Membership in Professional Associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2016), JUDr. (Doctor of Laws)

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2015), Mgr. (Master's degree)

Masaryk University, Faculty of Economics and Administration, Brno (2014), Bc. (Bachelor's degree)

E: martin.stancik@havelpartners.cz