

Petr Potůček

Associate

Petr Potůček specialises in corporate law, including international and domestic company acquisitions. He also advises on company transformations and related areas of commercial, civil and administrative law.

Petr has long focused on legal advice to private clients, always providing his legal services in a comprehensive manner, taking into account all tax and accounting implications. In providing legal services to investment companies, he also addresses group financing and tax optimisation issues.

Petr Potůček has been working at our firm since 2015, with a one-year break when being active in the judiciary, during which he specialised in litigation matters with a foreign element and proceedings under Part 5 of the Civil Procedure Code, which are specific in particular by the existence of a prior decision of an administrative authority.

Projects

- comprehensive legal advice to an investment group on the purchase and subsequent reconstruction of real estate in residential development
- legal advice on establishing and setting up the client's endowment fund
- comprehensive legal advice on domestic and foreign transformations within an investment group
- legal advice on establishing, setting up internal corporate governance rules, and dissolving business corporations of a business group
- legal advice in disputes with administrative authorities during the implementation of the client's construction plans

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2020), Mgr.

E: petr.potucek@havelpartners.cz