

Petr Řezníček Senior Associate

Petr Řezníček specialises in litigation and arbitration, in particular in disputes arising from contractual and tort law in the form of compensation for the material and non-material damage, as well as disputes arising from commercial law. He also deals with sports law.

In the area of litigation, in the past years Petr has been involved in a number of litigation matters, both on the plaintiff's and defendant's side, with a total value of several billion Czech crowns, especially for clients from the insurance, railway transport and public sectors.

Prior to joining our law firm in 2024, he worked for almost seven years at a leading Czech law firm, where he provided legal services to major Czech companies as well as state entities in their litigation agenda, particularly in the area of civil law. From his previous practice as an attorney at law, Petr also has extensive experience in representing weaker parties in litigation against entrepreneurs.

Projects

- Representing a leading Czech railway carrier in disputes over ownership of immovable property used for railway transport operations and advising in disputes over claims arising from defective performance in the delivery of railway vehicles
- Advising major insurance and banking clients on the introduction of the institute of class actions into the Czech legal system
- Representing a major domestic insurance company in disputes over the validity of insurance contracts and claims arising therefrom
- Representing a leading domestic insurance company in disputes over professional liability insurance claims
- Advising a major insurance entity on risk management and strategic communication in the context of litigation agenda
- Representing a major Czech subsidy provider in a dispute over settling compensation for the squeeze-out of minority shareholders

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2017), Mgr.
Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2020), JUDr.

E: petr.reznicek@havelpartners.cz