

David Krejčí

Junior Associate

David Krejčí specialises in litigation, class actions and debt recovery, as well as intellectual property law and real estate market disputes.

In the area of litigation, David has particular experience in co-ownership settlement disputes, copyright enforcement, and employment disputes. With the coming of the Act on Civil Class Proceedings, David specialises in advising non-profit organizations on the preparation of class actions or, conversely, is able to assist clients with an effective strategy to defend against class actions.

In 2024 he graduated from the Faculty of Law of Palacký University in Olomouc, where he was a member of the Academic Senate of the Faculty. For his outstanding academic achievements and extracurricular philanthropic activities, David was awarded the prestigious Petr Zoubek Scholarship for exceptionally talented students.

Prior to joining our law firm in 2022, he provided free legal advice for two years in the student legal clinic of the Palacký University Faculty of Law, where he helped people who could not otherwise afford legal aid.
