

Alice Nytrová

Managing Associate

Alice Nytrová specialises in mergers and acquisitions, corporate law, due diligence, contract and competition law, as well as state aid.

In her long-standing legal practice, Alice has been involved in many major domestic and cross-border transactions and strategic projects. Alice represented clients across various sectors, both on the sellers' and buyers' side, at all stages of a transaction. In addition to the preparation and negotiation of contractual documentation, the comprehensive legal advice included, among other things, structuring the transaction, implementing the preceding corporate restructuring, conducting due diligence and setting up the legal framework for business cooperation. In relation to investors, Alice advised on providing financing, establishing security for investments and, in the case of equity investors, setting up a new corporate structure. Alice has provided transactional advice to clients primarily in e-commerce, pharmaceutical, information technology, energy, real estate, financial services, and public sector.

In corporate law, Alice focuses primarily on corporate restructuring of business groups, setting up and regulating legal relations between shareholders, as well as domestic and cross-border corporate transformations.

Prior to joining our law firm in 2024, she worked for several years as a senior associate at a leading Czech law firm.

Projects

- legal advice on the acquisition of a business of a major Czech e-commerce company
- comprehensive legal advice on the provision of financing by investors, including conducting due diligence, preparation and negotiation of financial and security documentation, particularly in the energy and real estate sectors
- comprehensive legal advice to a major public sector entity on the selection of a suitable business partner for the provision of financial services through its network of branches
- comprehensive legal advice in connection with acquisitions of major assets, including conducting comprehensive due diligence, drafting and negotiating transaction documentation, as well as securing financing, particularly in the real estate and pharmaceutical sectors
- legal advice on the acquisition of renowned e-commerce companies
- comprehensive legal advice on domestic and cross-border transformations

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Masaryk University, Faculty of Law, Brno (2012), Mgr.
Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, Budapest (2010-2011), Erasmus study abroad

E: alice.nytrova@havelpartners.cz